The beam shown below is suddenly subjected to the indicated support movement. Establish a simple model of the structure and calculate the dynamic displacement and stress response. Discuss for what range of values $T_d$ your model is suitable, and discuss how you would obtain the response if $T_d$ were not within this “suitable range of your model.”

beam, initially at rest, Young’s modulus $E$, mass density $\rho$