Dynamics Quals 2007 – Written Problem

A large ring of mass $M$ hangs from the ceiling by a rope. Two small masses $m$ are mounted on the large ring, so they start from rest at the top of the ring and simultaneously slide without friction down opposite sides of it. For what values of the ratio $\frac{m}{M}$ will the large ring rise as the small masses descend around it?