In the sketch below, the two collars A and B, each of mass $m$, are interconnected by a rigid bar of length $L$ and mass $4m$. The system is driven by a motor which applies torque $M(t)$ to the vertical shaft and causes the T-bar to rotate about the vertical axis. Neglecting friction, derive the equations of motion for this system.